

This is an appointment matrix which our receptionists use when dealing with requests for appointments.
 We trust that you will provide us with correct information when requesting an appointment so that we can best direct you to the most appropriate service and determine the most appropriate urgency for your appointment.

The reason we assess the need for appointments is to ensure that you and your family get the best treatment and to allow us to provide urgent services for those who need them most.

