Reasonable Adjustments Form

We want to make sure you can use our services in a way that is right for you.

A reasonable adjustment is a small change or support that helps you if you find things harder because of a long-term disability, health condition, or other needs, lasting more than 12 months.

You may be able to have reasonable adjustments if you:

- Have a long-term physical disability
- Have a learning disability
- Have a long-term physical health condition
- Have a long-term mental health condition
- Have long-term problems with sight, hearing, or speaking
- Find it hard to understand or remember information

This form helps you tell us what support you need.

We will use this information to help make your care easier and safer.

Please complete this form so we can support you in the best way possible.
